ACEDC POLICY

MEMBERSHIP and DUES

BYLAWS: ARTICLE II (As Approved by Board of Trustees on April 18, 2019)

Section 1 — Eligibility for membership: Application for voting membership shall be open to any qualified municipality in Addison County, any person residing in, or any organization doing business in Addison County that support the purpose statement in Article I, Section 2. Membership is granted after completion and receipt of an online membership application and payment of annual dues. The board reserves the right to review and approve applications for membership.

Section 2 — Annual dues: The amount required for annual dues shall be based on the membership policy in force, unless changed by a majority vote of the board of trustees. Continued membership is contingent upon payment of membership dues on the anniversary of original membership.

Section 3 — Rights of members: Each member shall be eligible to appoint one voting representative to cast the member's vote in association elections.

Section 4 — Resignation and termination: Nonpayment of annual dues shall be considered resignation of membership. In addition, any member may resign by filing a written resignation with the secretary. Resignation shall not relieve a member of unpaid dues, or other charges previously accrued. A member can have their membership terminated by a majority vote of the membership.

Section 5 — Non-voting membership: The board shall have the authority to establish and define non-voting categories of membership.

Non-Voting Membership

Non-voting membership may be granted to non-profit and governmental organizations, other than municipalities, approved by the Board of Trustees that regularly partner with ACEDC to advance and support the purpose statement in the ACEDC bylaws (Article I, Section 2) and/or advance economic and community development in the region. Non-voting members receive the same benefits as voting members, with the exception of voting at Annual Meetings and election to the Board of Trustees (except as directed by the bylaws). Services provided to non-voting members shall be available as allowed by staff capacity. Non-voting members may include, but are not limited to:

- Addison County Chamber of Commerce
- Addison County Community Trust
- Addison County Regional Planning Commission
- Addison County Relocalization Network (ACORN)
- Better Middlebury Partnership
- Bristol CORE
- United Way of Addison County
- VEDA
- Vergennes Partnership
- VTSBDC

Membership Procedure and Protocol:
